MAJ. GEN. JAMES URSANO

SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM FOR ARMY CHILDREN

Applications accepted January 1 to April 1 for following academic year

The Maj. Gen. James Ursano Scholarship Program is based on applicants’ financial needs and was established to assist children of Soldiers in obtaining their first undergraduate degrees. In the last 15 years, more than 70,000 scholarships totaling over $125 million have been awarded to Army children.

Eligibility

- Dependent children of active duty, retired or National Guard and Reserve Soldiers on Title 10 Orders for the full academic year.
- Children must be enrolled full-time for the entire academic year and be under the age of 24.
- Recipients may receive scholarship funds for up to four years of full-time enrollment but must reapply each academic year.
- Student must remain unmarried for the entire academic year.

“I understand the AER motto is, ‘Helping the Army Take Care of its Own,’ and my goal is to give back to society as much as I can by achieving a higher education.”
