3. BACKGROUND.

Army Emergency Relief (AER) remains steadfast in its long-standing commitment to meet the needs of the 21st Century Soldier and Family during a crisis. Many Army Families in Louisiana and Mississippi are in the path of Hurricane Ida and may be impacted by its catastrophic storm surges, extreme winds, and flash flooding. Along with wide-spread power outages, many may also experience damages to personal property, which adds to the current crisis. Additionally, the states of Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Arkansas may also be impacted by damaging winds and flooding from this historic Hurricane.

4. PURPOSE.

This AER Bulletin provides guidance for Evacuation (Departure and Return), Stabilization In-Place and Recovery assistance for eligible individuals impacted by Hurricane Ida. Disaster Assistance is primarily for the states listed in paragraph 3 above, but also extends to individuals impacted by Hurricane Ida in any state. Eligible Army personnel may be provided financial assistance to assist with evacuation, stabilization-in-place, and recovery from the devastation of Hurricane Ida. Disaster assistance may be provided for travel related expenses associated with ordered evacuations from an impacted area, returning to an evacuated area of primary domicile, basic essential needs to sustain oneself during stabilization-in-place, recovery, and any other essential needs associated with restoration affecting Life, Health, or Safety (LHS).
