days and those activated in support of Eastern Kentucky Flooding relief efforts.

4. GENERAL GUIDELINES.

- a. Assistance will be provided as a loan, grant or combination of both.
- b. Grants or a combination of Loan and Grant are highly encouraged and should be favorably considered when repayment will cause a financial hardship.
- c. Assistance is “needs based” and there are no dollar caps or limits.
- d. Evacuation and Return assistance will only be considered for individuals who have been ordered to evacuate via a local municipal evacuation order. Return assistance will only be considered upon confirmation by the local municipality that it is safe to do so.
- e. Assistance will be retroactive to 27 July 2022 and applicants may apply for reimbursement as a “one time” exception for basic essential evacuation (departure and return) needs. Applicants will be required to provide receipts for expenses i.e. food, fuel and temporary lodging to be reimbursed.
- f. Caseworkers should review property insurance documents and other related documentation to ensure applicants have submitted applicable claims for property damages. Assistance may be considered for deductibles as necessary to support an insurance claim.
- g. AER Form 57, Budget Planning Sheet (BPS) or local BPS is required for all assistance requests.
- h. Repayment may be deferred for sixty (60) days.
- i. Repayment of a loan will not exceed thirty-six (36) months, except when approved by HQ AER.
- j. A loan must be repaid sixty (60) days prior to ETS, end of the Title 10 Active-Duty commitment or within six months after the first scheduled repayment, whichever comes first.
- k. Soldiers who find themselves in a situation where repayment of a loan is causing a financial hardship should contact the HQ AER Loan Management Section for further guidance.

5. PROCEDURE.

ARMY EMERGENCY RELIEF

- a. Soldiers and eligible Family members will contact the nearest AER Section or other service Military Aid Society (Air Force, Navy/Marine Corps or Coast Guard) within a fifty (50) mile commuting radius for application processing instructions. Applicants will forward AER application with supporting documentation listed in Paragraph 6 below to the nearest AER Section or Military Aid Society Office for review, evaluation and assistance consideration.
- b. If outside the fifty (50) mile commuting radius of any military installation, applicants will contact the American Red Cross at 1-877-272-7337 and select Option 1 for financial assistance. The American Red Cross will provide a secure link to transmit application information listed in Paragraph 9 below, conduct case intake on behalf of AER Section and forward case information to HQ AER for review, evaluation, and assistance consideration/decision.
- c. AER Officers will input the following case information in ARMS on the “Application Tab”:
